

Limited Product Warranty and Exclusions

Vibration Technologies provides a limited warranty that covers defects of your Vibration Technologies vibration fitness machine caused by material or manufacturing faults. The warranty period is for 2 years and begins on the date of purchase by the original end user.

This limited warranty is made only to the original purchaser of the Vibration Technologies machine and is not transferable to any subsequent owner.

Vibration Technologies will, at its option, repair or replace the defective component(s) free of charge, provided that Vibration Technologies is notified of the defect during the warranty period and a dated proof of purchase is furnished. Vibration Technologies reserves the right to inspect the faulty component(s) and determine if the defect is due to material or manufacturing flaws. Vibration Technologies also reserves the right to charge for service time expended if the defect is not due to material or manufacturing flaws or is not for some other reason subject to this limited warranty.

Vibration Technologies does not warrant Vibration machines from any and all defects or damage caused by:

- Normal wear and tear
- Shipping or transportation damages
- Improper installation
- Exposure to unsuitable environmental conditions (including but not limited to damage due to lightning strikes)
- Unauthorized or abnormal use or operation
- Negligence or accidents
- Material or workmanship not provided by Vibration Technologies
- This warranty does not cover costs related to the removal, installation, or troubleshooting of Vibration fitness machine.

Vibration Technologies will, at its option, use new and/or reconditioned parts in performing warranty repair and in building replacement products. Vibration Technologies reserves the right to use parts or products of original or improved design in the repair or replacement. If Vibration Technologies repairs or replaces a product, its warranty continues for the remaining portion of the original warranty period or 90 days from the date of the return shipment to the customer, whichever period expires later.

All replaced products and all parts removed from repaired products become the property of Vibration Technologies. Vibration Technologies covers both parts and labor necessary to repair the product and return shipment to the customer, via a Vibration Technologies selected non-expedited freight carrier within Canada. The warranty does not cover any cost associated with installation, removal or re-installation of the Vibration Technologies vibration fitness machine.
